

Molly Kelly
The Lady of Knockanure

An accident harmed a Champion for Life
Dr. Jim's condition proved beyond cure
Making a widow of his wife
Who became the Lady of Knockanure

Molly's new reality caused her to mourn
Then she overcame her grief and more
Became an advocate for the preborn
The Beautiful Lady of Knockanure

Born on the Annunciation Feast
Mary Angelus Scanlan for sure
With her family and faith as the yeast
Rose to be the witty poet at Knockanure

A Mom with eight children to raise
In a home with a special front door
She brought much love to their days
And welcomed many guests to Knockanure

St. Patrick's Parties brought talent and fun
Meetings for Life shined and were no bore
Acts were performed and prizes were won
All at her home called Knockanure

Knockanure also provided her a base
To renew Jim's fight for the human race
By speaking widely and making the case
For youth to love life and live chaste

A Pa. Governor and a Pope
Thanked her for becoming an Ambassador
To bring our State and Church joy and hope
From Life's Embassy at Knockanure

The Lady of Knockanure provided the leaven
To protect life and provides a taste of Heaven
